

WOMEN ON THE RUN.
SOCIAL WORK AND THE VICTIMS OF TRAFFICKING.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13TH 10AM ANTECHAMBER OF THE BARONS OF ANGEVIN.

10am

Women on the run - A history of exploitation and emancipation

Reading taken from the testimony of a woman taking charge as part of the project
"Fuori Tratta" By Ilaria Cecere - Photos by Elena Perlino

10.30am

Luigi De Magistris, Mayor of Naples

Robert Gaeta - Welfare Councillor with responsibility for social policy and immigration

11.00am

Presentation of 1st research report on trafficking of persons and exploitation

OlivieroForti Head of Immigration Office Italian Caritas

11.30am

Social services as a form of investment: a tool to combat criminal organizations and for the protection of victims

Francesco Carchedi Rome University La Sapienza

12:00 pm

Gender, citizens, suffering. The forms of subjection and paradoxes of dependence among the victims of trafficking

Roberto Beneduce University of Turin, Frantz Fanon Centre

12.30pm

Debate

Danilo Tuccillo (The locomotive Onlus); Sister Rita Giarretta (Cassa Ruf), Giuseppe Cavaliere (Arcii Salerno), Raffaella Palladino (Cooperative Eve); Elisabetta Riccardi (The Kassandre)

Chair: Andrea Momirdi - Social Cooperative Dedalus

Conclusion by: Simona Marino City Councilman with responsibility for equal opportunities

For more information

Dedalus social cooperative

www.coopdedalus.it

tratta@coopdedalus.it

phone 081 78 77 333

